

OFFICE OF THE REGISTRAR

October 28, 2024

Dear AUB Faculty,

We hope you are staying safe. We are proceeding with our academic continuity plans to complete the fall term before the end of the year despite the difficult conditions.

We are writing today to inform you of changes to the academic calendar that were approved at the meeting of the University Senate on Friday, October 25, 2024. These changes are being made to provide you and your students with more time to assure that your students are able to meet the learning objectives of your courses, taking into account our obligations to accrediting agencies.

The last day of classes will now be on December 12. Reading Period will begin on December 13 and run through December 15. Final examination period will begin on December 16 and run through December 22. We will be communicating with you again soon about the details and guidelines for the final examination period.

The changes below are reflected in the official academic calendar and the Fall and Spring Registration Guides that you will find on the Office of the Registrar's website.
