

INTERNATIONAL ACADEMIC CONFERENCE “Ahatanhel Krymskyi and Lebanon”

MAIN EVENT

An event marking the 150th anniversary
of Ahatanhel Krymskyi

a Ukrainian scholar specialized in Middle Eastern studies, a linguist, folklorist, translator, and writer, the pioneer of Near and Middle Eastern studies in Ukraine.

Thursday, November 11, 2021
10:00 am | West Hall, Auditorium A

For inquiries contact Ms. Oksana Prokhorovych at oip00@mail.aub.edu

*All in-person attendees must be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 and send a copy of their vaccination certificates to oip00@mail.aub.edu
by November 8.*

Masks are required to be worn in all indoor spaces. Unvaccinated individuals or those who do not provide proof of vaccination will not be permitted on-campus.

SIDE EVENTS

Presentation of the facsimile edition of Mazepa's Gospel

published in Aleppo 1708 at the expense of Ukrainian Hetman (Ruler) Ivan Mazepa

Photo exhibition
“Ahatanhel Krymskyi
in Dhour El Choueir”

SPONSORED BY

Sheikh Zayed Chair for Arabic and Islamic Studies, AUB